

Voorhees Video Club

Advisor: Brianna O'Halloran

Video Club welcomes students of all skill levels who express an interest in filmmaking and content creation. Students can utilize equipment, learn new skills, and meet others outside of their normal classes. Projects will be done that might involve commercials, interviews with community members, the Unified program, short skits, motion graphics, and documentation of events.

Video Club meets on Thursdays weekly and/or bi-weekly.